Africa on Shortwave at a glance

Here is a quick look at the African shortwave radio scene at the beginning of November 2017. Further details can be found under each country section in this guide.

Algeria Radio Algerienne operates on shortwave during the morning 0400-0700 and evening 1800-2300 with relays via Issoudun, France. The new transmitters in Algeria are still not yet on air.

Angola RNA's Canal A is heard widely on 4950v kHz.

Ascension Island The BBC Atlantic Relay Station is on air with relays of the BBC World Service to Africa, as well as relays of the Voice of America and Deutsche Welle, and programmes on behalf of Dandal Kura (to Nigeria), Follow the Bible, and Radio Akhbar Mufriha.

Botswana The IBB Transmitting Station broadcasts Voice of America and Afia Darfur programmes to Africa between 0300-2200.

Burundi Whilst there was an on-going political crisis in Burundi, Radio Publique Africaine had broadcast a daily programme to Burundi via a shortwave transmitter in Issoudun, France, at 1800-1900 on 15480 kHz. However, this was discontinued on 1 September 2017.

The Voice of America has dedicated Great Lakes Service for Burundi and Rwanda.

Central African Republic Radio Maïngo (previously known as Radio IDCI) is a community radio station belonging to Water for Good, a Christian ministry, that says it is on air with a 1 kW shortwave transmitter on 6030 kHz daily between 0600-1100 and 1300-1600.

Chad Despite reportedly being reactivated in March 2016, Radio Chad on 6165 kHz has not been heard since and is presumably off air again. Worth checking the frequency regularly though, especially as both Malabo and Mali have had their transmitters seemingly repaired in recent weeks and indicating that there may be technicians from either China or Taiwan doing the rounds in Africa.

Congo (Dem Rep) Radio Télé Candip is a radio station in Bunia, Ituri Province, Eastern DRC, that operates with a 1 kW shortwave transmitter on 5066.3 kHz between 0250v-0700 and 1300-1900v and is reported quite often.

Best Radio (formerly known as Radio Kahuzi) located in Bukavu, South Kivua Province, Eastern DRC is operated by a Christian group called Believer's Express Service, Inc. They say that their 1 kW shortwave transmitter is operational on 6210 kHz between 0700v-1500v.

Congo (Rep) Radio Congo maintains a 50 kW shortwave transmitter for daytime coverage on 6115 kHz, characterised by its abrupt sign-off anytime between 1830-1900.

Egypt Radio Cairo is the external service of Egyptian radio and continues to operate services on shortwave in several languages, although many transmissions have severe technical problems such as extreme distortion, low modulation or undermodulation and make the effort of broadcasting programmes totally worthless. Relays of the General Programme and Voice of the Arabs have been discontinued on shortwave.

Equatorial Guinea Radio Bata is located on mainland Rio Muni and its 50 kW shortwave transmitter is on air between 0500v-2300v on 5005 kHz, although is irregularly heard.

Radio Malabo is the sister station of Radio Bata and is located on Bioko Island. A new 20 kW transmitter and antenna was reportedly inaugurated for Radio Malabo in November 2007 (replacing an existing 10 kW unit) but since 2011 there had been no positive reports of the station until 26 July 2017 when BDXC member Jordan Heyburn posted a tip via the WRTH Facebook page to say that the station had been reactivated on 6250 kHz. Although heard testing for a few days it has then been seemingly been silent since 30 July 2017.

Eritrea Eritrean Radio is only heard irregularly on shortwave, Programme 1 was last observed on 7145v kHz and Programme 2 on 7175v kHz. The latter also carries Ethiopian opposition programmes which results in heavy jamming from Ethiopia at these times and the Eritrean Radio frequency switches to an adjacent channel.

There are several target broadcasts to Eritrea, both from neighbouring Ethiopia and hired high-power transmitters in Europe, see the various schedules under the Eritrea heading.

Ethiopia Radio Ethiopia's external service operates on 7236.8v kHz, although the programmes in English and French appear to have been discontinued now leaving the regional languages of Somali, Afar, and Arabic around 1200-1700. Eritrean opposition programmes are also aired over Radio Ethiopia at 0400-0500, 1500-1600 and 1800-1830, although not daily.

Somali Regional State Radio has been discovered on shortwave 5940 kHz thanks to monitoring observations by Thorsten Hallman and further research by Jari Savolainen. Thorsten comments: I believe the so-far-unidentified station on 5940 kHz is now identified as the official station of the Ethiopian Somali Regional State (though we are not 100% sure about the ID), thanks to Jari Savolainen's research. Broadcast times are approx. 0400-0510+, 1300-1500, 1810-2000 - all a bit variable. There seem to be daily newscasts at 1910v. The rest of the programme consists mainly of long musical sections and occasional interviews/correspondents reports by phone. It all sounds a bit provisional, no jingles, no IDs at sign-on or sign-off or other regular features. (Thorsten Hallmann, 22 August 2017 via DXLD)

Fana Broadcasting Corporation from Addis Ababa on 6110 kHz is widely heard and is scheduled 0300-2100.

Also well heard are the regional stations of Voice of the Tigray Revolution on 5950 kHz, Radio Oromiya on 6030 kHz, and Amhara Radio on 6090 kHz, all scheduled 0300-2000/2100 with breaks throughout the day.

Like Eritrea, there are a number of target broadcasts to Ethiopia, mainly from Ethiopian opposition groups. Reception in the Horn of Africa is often blocked by the Ethiopian authorities with white noise digital jamming.

Guinea Radio Guinée is heard on 9650 kHz between 0600-0000, having been more or less continuously on air since being reactivated in early August 2016.

Liberia Radio ELWA is active on 6050 kHz with religious programmes for Liberia and neighbouring countries, scheduled between 0530-1000 and 1700-0000(2230sa/su). Their old 60 metre-band frequency of 4760 kHz is no longer heard.

Madagascar Radio Madagasikara still appears to be on air according to various reports, although the frequency usage has reduced to 5010 kHz at 0300-0500 and 1500-1900(2200sa/su) and 6135 kHz at 0500-1500.

The Madagascar Global Relay Station, previously owned and operated by Radio Netherlands, continues to relay several international and religious broadcasting stations with a schedule between 0200-2100.

World Christian Broadcasting is on air between 0200-0500 and 1800-2300 with programmes in English, Spanish, Chinese, Russian and Arabic to various parts of the world.

Mali Radio Mali was reported with improved modulation in late July 2017, seemingly indicating that some repairs may have been carried out with their last remaining shortwave transmitter. It is scheduled 0555-0800 on 5995 kHz, 0800-1800 on 9635 kHz, and 1800-0000 back on 5995 kHz.

China Radio International's Bamako Relay is reported off-air at the moment, although this is likely just to be a temporary situation.

Voice of America's "Mali Kura" programme to Mali continues to be aired Monday-Friday 2130-2200 on 9490, 11900, 13670 and 15120 kHz.

Morocco It was reported in July 2017 that a spokesman at the Nador transmitter site had confirmed that Medi 1 has terminated shortwave transmissions, bringing to an end HF broadcasting from Morocco.

Nigeria Voice of Nigeria is only heard on 7255v kHz (or 9690v kHz as an alternative). It is scheduled daily at 0600-0900 in Hausa, French, Fulfulde, and English, and 1800-2100 in English, Fulfulde, and Hausa (Voice of Nigeria was observed by several listeners on 9690v kHz on the evening of 26 August and morning of 27 August 2017 rather than the usual 7255 kHz).

Voice of Nigeria's DRM transmission in English is heard 1800-1930 on 15120 kHz.

Radio Nigeria Kaduna is heard irregularly on 6090v kHz between 0400-2305 in Hausa. This is Nigeria's last remaining domestic radio station on shortwave.

At present there is just one target broadcast to Nigeria, Dandal Kura is scheduled 0500-0600 on 5960 kHz, 0700-0800 on 13810 kHz, and 1800-2100 on 12050 kHz, all programmes are in Kanuri.

Rwanda Radio Itahuka is an opposition target station of the Rwanda National Congress and has a weekly broadcast in Kinyarwanda on Saturdays at 1800-1900 on 15420 kHz via Talata-Volonondry, Madagascar.

Sao Tome The IBB Transmitting Station broadcasts Voice of America, Afia Darfur and Deutsche Welle programmes to Africa between 0300-2200.

Somalia Somalia's domestic shortwave scene consists of two irregularly heard stations, Warsan Radio in Baydhabo, South West State, on 7750 kHz usb, and Radio Puntland in Garowe on 6160 / 13800 kHz.

There is a target broadcast to Somalia from Radio Ergo at 1200-1300 on 17845 kHz via Dhabbaya, UAE.

Somaliland Radio Harigeisa is well heard on 7120 kHz, signing off at 1900.

Voice of the People of Somaliland is a new daily target broadcast that appears to have been launched on Saturday 19 August 2017 according to IBB Monitoring information quoted by Ivo Ivano/SWLDXBulgaria. The station appears to have connections to the website somalilandvoice.co.uk. It is scheduled 1900-1930 on 9600 kHz from Talata Volondry, Madagascar.

South Africa Radio Sonder Grense, an Afrikaans language service of the SABC, broadcasts 24 hours a day for listeners in the Northern Cape: 0500-0700 on 7285 kHz, 0700-1800 on 9650 kHz, and 1800-0500 on 3320 kHz, Channel Africa, the international radio service of SABC, is on air Monday-Friday between 0300-1800, which includes English at 0300-0400 on 6155 kHz, 0300-0500 on 3345 kHz, 0500-0900 on 7230 kHz, 0600-0700 on 15255 kHz, 0900-1200 on 9625 kHz, 1500-1600 on 9625 kHz, 1600-1700 on 6035 kHz, and 1700-1800 on 15235 kHz.

The South African Radio League has its weekly "Amateur Radio Today" aired over shortwave transmitters at Meyerton at 0800-0900 Sunday on 7205 & 17660 kHz, repeated at 1630-1730 Monday on 4895 kHz.

The Meyerton Transmitting Station, operated by Sentech, continues to relay several international broadcasting stations between 0400-2000 daily, with the BBC being the main user with English and other languages to Africa.

South Sudan Eye Radio has target broadcasts to South Sudan on shortwave at 0400-0500 on 11730 kHz and 1300-1830 on 15250 kHz, relayed via Issoudun, France.

VOA's "South Sudan in Focus" is aired Monday-Friday at 1630-1700 on 11850, 13865, and 15180 kHz.

Sudan Sudan Radio, the domestic service in Arabic, is on 7205 kHz, observed around 0215-0600v, 1300-1600v, and 1930-2100v, although at times it has been on 9505 kHz, the frequency usually used by the Voice of Africa external service (see below).

Voice of Africa is the external service of Sudan Radio, with programmes in French, English and Hausa around 1600-1930 on 9505 kHz. Transmissions that had previously been aired in the morning have not been confirmed recently.

Radio Afia Darfur is a target broadcast to Sudan, operated from the Middle East Broadcast Network facility in Virginia and is funded by a grant from the US State Dept to the BBG. It has three broadcasts in Sudanese Arabic at 0300-0330 on 7215, 9510, and 9825 kHz, 1800-1830 on 9650, 11615, and 12075 kHz, and 1900-1930 on 9780, 9825, and 11615 kHz.

Radio Tamazuj is an initiative of Free Press Unlimited and produces a special programme for people in the conflict areas between North and South Sudan, such as Abyei, Blue Nile and South Kordofan. It has two target broadcasts in Sudanese Arabic and other Sudanese languages at 0330-0430 on 7315 and 15550 kHz, and 1430-1530 on 13800 and 15550 kHz.

Radio Dabanga is part of the Radio Darfur Network, an initiative of Darfur Journalists to provide independent news. It has two target broadcasts that follow on from Radio Tamazuj, at 0430-0530 on 7315 and 15550 kHz, and 1530-1630 on 13800 and 15550 kHz.

Swaziland TWR Swaziland still has an extensive schedule on shortwave with religious programmes in various African languages. English is broadcast at 0430-0500 on 3200 and 4775 kHz, 0600-0700 on 4775 and 6120 kHz, 1420-1455 on 7300 kHz, 1802-1902 (different languages on certain days) on 9500 kHz.

Uganda Dunamis Shortwave in Mukono, northern Uganda, is irregularly heard on 4750 kHz, usually scheduled 1500v-1900v in English and local languages for Uganda and Southern Sudan.

Zambia ZNBC in Lusaka is usually on 5915 kHz between 0245-2205, mainly in national languages but with English at 0500-0515, 1115-1140, and 1800-1810. However, since July 2017 the transmitter has been off-air due to technical or power supply problems.

Voice of Hope - Africa purchased the former Christian Vision facilities in Zambia in late 2014 and now operates the following schedule on shortwave: 0500-0800 Monday-Friday on 9860 & 11680 kHz, 1200-1700 Saturday/Sunday on 9680 & 13680 kHz (extended to 1730 on 9680 kHz on Sundays), and 1600-1900 Monday-Friday on 4965 & 6065 kHz.

Zanzibar Zanzibar Broadcasting Corporation has two shortwave transmissions daily, at 0300-0600 on 6015 kHz for East Africa, and 1500-2100 on 11735 kHz for the Arabian Peninsula. English news from Spice FM is heard irregularly at 1800.

Zimbabwe VOA's Studio 7 programme is broadcast during daily between 1700-1800 in Shona and Ndebele on 4930, 13860, and 15460 kHz, whilst a "Live Call" phone in programme is aired on weekdays at 1800-1900 on the same frequencies.

Central African Republic

Radio Centrafrique

Radio Centrafrique is the state-operated radio service of the Central African Republic. It currently broadcasts only on FM in Bangui. Reactivation of both mediumwave and shortwave transmitters on 1440 kHz and 5035/7220 kHz is said to be planned, neither of which has been reported since at least 2012.

Radio Maïngo

Radio Maïngo (previously known as Radio IDCI) is a community radio station belonging to Water for Good (previously known as Integrated Community Development International), a Christian ministry founded by Jim Hocking in 2003. Official broadcasts with a 1 kW shortwave transmitter started on 1 March 2007 on 6030 kHz with Christian programming and community health information. A second 1 kW shortwave transmitter donated by HCJB Global Voice was installed in April 2010 and went live on 1 April 2011 on 3390 kHz. Radio ICDI, as it was then known, was put off air in March 2013 when Selaka rebels advanced on Bangui, with their studio and equipment looted. The station was rebuilt and reactivated in May 2013. Radio Maïngo broadcasts its programmes in French, Sango and Fulfulde, communicating information for the prevention of AIDS, the cause of orphans, the maintenance of water pumps in the villages, hygiene and sanitation, as well as many community development topics. Radio Maïngo's website also says it broadcasts programmes daily from Radio Ndeke Luka, established by the French-based Fondation Hironnelle, and the Network of Journalists for Human Rights (RJDH).

Ethiopian regional stations currently broadcasting on mediumwave and shortwave

Somali Regional State Radio

Thanks to monitoring observations by Thorsten Hallman and further research by Jari Savolainen during August 2017, Ethiopian Somali Regional State Radio is the station found to be operating on 5940 kHz. A Wikipedia entry for the state says that the Ethiopian Somali Regional State (Somali: Dawlada Deegaanka Soomaalida Itoobiya) is the easternmost of the nine ethnic divisions of Ethiopia. It is often called Soomaali Galbeed ("Western Somalia") on account of its geographical position within the Greater Somalia matrix. The state borders the Ethiopian regions of Oromia, Afar and Dire Dawa (Diridhawa) to the west, as well as Djibouti to the north, Somalia to the north, east and south, and Kenya to the south-west. Jijiga has been the capital of the Somali Regional State since 1994. The Somali Region covers much of the traditional territory of Ogaden and it formed a large part of the pre-1995 province of Hararghe. The population is predominantly Somali, and there is internal pressure to remove Ethiopian rule. There have been attempts to incorporate the area into a Greater Somalia.

Transmitter site: Jijiga, Somali Regional State.

Voice of the Tigray Revolution (Dimtsi Woyane Tigray)

Voice of the Tigray Revolution is the official broadcasting station of the Tigray Region. The Tigray Region is the northernmost of the nine ethnic divisions of Ethiopia. Tigray is the homeland of the Tigrayans, Irob and Kunama peoples. The region's capital and largest city is Mek'ele. Tigray is bordered by Eritrea to the north, Sudan to the west, the Afar Region to the east, and the Amhara Region to the south and southwest. The working language is Tigrinya, although most urban people are also able to speak Amharic. (Wikipedia)

Radio Oromiyya

Radio Oromiyya is the official broadcasting station of the Oromiyya Region. Oromiyya is bordered by the Somali Region to the east; the Amhara Region, the Afar Region and the Benishangul-Gumuz Region to the north; South Sudan, Gambela Region, and Southern Nations, Nationalities, and Peoples' Region to the west; and Kenya to the south. The 2007 census reported that the Oromia Region population was 26,993,933, making it the largest state in population and area. Oromo (afaan oromoo), which is written with Latin characters, is the most commonly spoken language, spoken by 83.5% of the population. Other major languages include Amharic (11%) especially in eastern Welega and northern Shewa. (Wikipedia)

Transmitter site: MW: Robe, Oromiya - 100 kW (on 837 kHz); Adama, Oromiya - 10 kW (on 1035 kHz); SW: Addis Ababa (Geja) - 100 kW.

Amhara Regional State Radio

Amhara Regional State Radio is the official broadcasting station of the Amhara Region. Amhara is one of the nine ethnic divisions of Ethiopia, containing the homeland of the Amhara people. Previously known as Region 3, its capital is Bahir Dar. Ethiopia's largest inland body of water, Lake Tana, which is the source of the Blue Nile river, is located within Amhara. The region also contains the Semien Mountains National Park, which includes Ras Dashan, the highest point in Ethiopia. Amhara is bordered by the state of Sudan to the west and northwest, and in other directions by other regions of Ethiopia: Tigray to the north, Afar to the east, Benishangul-Gumuz to the west and southwest, and Oromia to the south. At 91.47% of the local population, the region is predominantly inhabited by people from the Semitic-speaking Amhara ethnic group. Most other residents hail from other Afro-Asiatic language communities, including the Agaw/Awi, Oromo, Agaw/Kamyr and Argobba. (Wikipedia)

Fana Broadcasting Corporate S.C.

Radio Fana (Fana is Amharic for "Torch"), now known as Fana Broadcasting Corporate S.C., was originally operated by the Ethiopian People's Revolutionary Democratic Front (EPRDF, the ruling coalition). Broadcasts by Radio Fana began on 7 November 1994 and replaced those by two earlier EPRDF stations, the Voice of the Ethiopian People for Peace, Democracy and Freedom, and the Voice of the Broad Masses, which broadcast in Amharic and Oromo respectively from shared transmitter facilities. The line taken in Radio Fana's broadcasts originally echoed that of Radio Ethiopia, the government station in Addis Ababa, although it was described as "an autonomous radio station deriving its income from educational sponsorship by non-governmental organisations". It is now said to be a private news media company, focusing mostly on political, social and economic issues within Ethiopia, although likely to still be a mouthpiece for the Ethiopian government. It operates both radio and television stations.

Transmitter site: Addis Ababa - MW: 3 kW; SW: 100 kW; also operates throughout Ethiopia on FM.

The BBC World Service relay station in Lesotho was opened in 1979 with two 100 kW shortwave transmitters. It closed on 30th September 1996, with shortwave relays switching to Meyerton in South Africa.

Liberia

Liberia Broadcasting System

LBS is the public broadcasting service in Liberia. It currently operates on FM only.

Radio ELWA

Radio ELWA is a Christian radio station in Monrovia. After having its facilities destroyed in the Liberian civil war, a 1 kW shortwave transmitter built by HCJB Global was installed in 2000 (for 4760 kHz) and a 5 kW shortwave transmitter built by Elcor in 2008 (for 6070 kHz). In early 2011, both shortwave transmitters were inactive due to the theft of copper wire for the antenna and other equipment. In November 2011 it was reported that the Radio ELWA studio compound in Monrovia had been completely destroyed by fire, although they remained on air on FM from a temporary building. On 21 December 2013, Radio ELWA resumed shortwave transmissions on 4760 kHz. However, it has been irregular on this frequency since March 2014. In December 2014, a second transmitter was noted on 6050 kHz.

Transmitter site: Monrovia - 1 kW.

Libya

Libyan Radio and Television Network

Libyan Radio and Television Network is the replacement for the Gaddafi-era Libyan Jamahiriya Broadcasting. With the exception of the two mediumwave frequencies mentioned below, all Libyan National Radio stations, as well as private and factional radio stations, are now on FM.

Libyan National Radio on mediumwave

kHz	Station	Location	kW	Schedule
677.5	Libyan National Radio	Benghazi, Cyrenaica	100	24h in Arabic
1053	Libyan National Radio	Tripoli, Greater Tripoli	100	24h in Arabic

Observations by Dave Kernick: Both remaining Libyan mediumwave transmitters can be monitored remotely by web SDRs based in southern Europe, with reception ranging from poor to good during the hours of local darkness. Libya National Radio (Benghazi) on 675 kHz is the easier catch, typically identifying on-air as "Idha'at Libiya al-Wataniya" and announcing the local 89.3 FM frequency (and occasionally the MW frequency). They have a Facebook page at <http://tinyurl.com/benghaziradio> and a clip can be heard via the Interval Signals Online website at <http://tinyurl.com/isobenghazi>. Libya National Radio (Tripoli) on 1053 kHz is somewhat harder to hear with adequate reception due to sometimes strong co-channel QRM. No programming has been observed to be in parallel with Benghazi. LNR Tripoli has a Facebook page at <http://tinyurl.com/tripoliradio>. This state-run broadcaster's TV channel has a website at ltv.ly (David Kernick, Interval Signals Online, 22 October 2017, via DXLD)

On shortwave, Radio-Television Libya was first heard in October 2011 with a service in French on 11600 kHz and was the replacement for the LJB Voice of Africa external service. In September 2012, French programming was replaced by an Arabic service but the transmitter has not been heard since September 2013.

Somalia

All stations in the Mogadishu area are now on FM only. Radio Mogadishu, representing the Federal Government is on FM only. Radio Mogadishu, then operated by the last fully functioning government in Somalia, was last reported on shortwave in 1991. Since then there have been several shortwave radio stations in Somalia broadcasting in support of various clans and factions, peacekeeping operations, and more recently, the Transitional Federal Government.

Puntland

Puntland is a self-declared autonomous state in northeast Somalia. Unlike neighbouring Somaliland, it does not seek outright independence from Somalia.

Radio Puntland

After a series of low power tests conducted by Italian technicians in April 2013, Radio Puntland was due to commence full time operations in June 2013 with a 25 kW shortwave transmitter. However, the transmitter failed to be delivered and the project was delayed until the arrival of a new one from another manufacturer in early 2015.

Transmitter site: Garowe, Puntland - 10 kW.

South West State of Somalia

The South West State of Somalia, also known as the Interim South West Administration, is an autonomous region in southwestern Somalia. It was originally founded by Hasan Muhammad Nur Shatigadud, leader of the Rahanweyn Resistance Army (RRA) on 1 April 2002. After its dissolution in 2005, the territory was re-established in November 2009 as an official Federal Member State of Somalia.

Somaliland

Radio Hargeisa

Radio Hargeisa is the national broadcasting station of the Republic of Somaliland. It was established in 1948, but in 1988 was destroyed by forces of Siyad Bare. In the years that followed it reportedly operated on various low-powered transmitters until a new shortwave unit was installed in 2008, with regular transmissions commencing in March 2009 on 7145 kHz. However, by late 2009 it was no longer heard. After an absence of nearly three years, a new Chinese-built shortwave transmitter was inaugurated on 27 August 2012, adding to existing coverage on mediumwave and FM.

Transmitter site: Hargeisa - 100 kW on SW.

South Africa

South African Broadcasting Corporation

The South African Broadcasting Corporation is the state-owned broadcaster in South Africa. The SABC established services in what were then the country's official languages, English and Afrikaans, with broadcasts in ethnic languages following later. In 1966 the SABC also established an external service, Radio RSA, now known as Channel Africa. There are many stations on FM and mediumwave throughout South Africa, and Radio Sonder Grense is still on shortwave with its service to the Northern Cape.
